Itinerary

Day 1	Arrival in Moshi
Upon arrival in Moshi, you'll be warmly greeted by your guide and transferred to your hotel for check-in. Take some time to rest and adjust to the local climate. Later, participate in a comprehensive briefing about your upcoming climb. This is also an excellent opportunity to purchase any last-minute trekking gear or supplies you may need before starting your adventure.
Day 2	Moshi to Lemosho Gate
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner After breakfast, you'll depart for Lemosho Gate, where your adventure officially begins. Following registration, you'll start your ascent through lush rainforest. As you trek, soak in the vibrant sounds of nature and observe local wildlife. The day culminates at Lemosho Camp, where you'll set up for your first night in the wild.

Day 3

Lemosho Glades to Shira 1 Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Today's hike takes you through the picturesque Lemosho Glades, characterized by stunning views and diverse wildlife. The trail gradually ascends toward the Shira Plateau, allowing you to appreciate the expansive landscapes. Arrive at Shira 1 Camp in the afternoon, where you'll have time to rest and enjoy the tranquility of the surroundings.

Day 4

Shira 1 Camp to Shira 2 Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

This day features a steady trek toward Shira 2 Camp, designed to help you adjust to higher altitudes. As you walk, take in breathtaking views of Kibo Peak and the extensive terrain around you. The route is relatively gentle, facilitating acclimatization while allowing you to appreciate your majestic surroundings.

Day 5

Shira 2 Camp to Barranco Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Today, you'll continue your journey toward Barranco Camp. Your route takes you through the Lava Tower, a striking geological feature, perfect for acclimatization. After navigating some challenging sections, you'll descend into the lush Barranco Camp, where the striking Barranco Wall offers a stunning backdrop for your overnight stay.

Day 6

Barranco Camp to Karanga Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

After enjoying breakfast, it's time to tackle the iconic Barranco Wall, which promises to deliver breathtaking views as you climb. Upon reaching the top, transition into the serene Karanga Valley, where you will set up camp and relax in this captivating environment, taking in the beautiful vistas surrounding you.

Day 7

Karanga Camp to Barafu Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Your trek today involves a steady ascent toward Barafu Camp, a crucial point for your upcoming summit attempt. Although the trek can be demanding, the experience is rewarding, offering a unique opportunity to connect with fellow climbers. You'll arrive at Barafu Camp in the late afternoon, where it's essential to rest well in anticipation of the summit push.

Day 8

Summit Day - Uhuru Peak

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

The summit day begins in the early hours after midnight, as you rise to begin your ascent to Uhuru Peak. As your team climbs, take moments to absorb the stunning views around you, fueling your determination to reach the top. Celebrate your arrival at the summit before beginning the descent back to Barafu Camp, where warm food and rest await.

Day 9

Descend to Mweka Gate

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

After a well-deserved breakfast, you will begin your descent from Barafu Camp through the verdant mountain forests down to Mweka Gate. Upon reaching the gate, you'll receive a commemorative certificate for your achievements. A transfer back to Moshi will provide a fitting end to your incredible climbing experience.

FAQs

What is the best time to climb Kilimanjaro?

The ideal months for climbing Mount Kilimanjaro are January to March and June to October. These dry seasons offer clearer skies and more stable weather, significantly enhancing your trekking experience.

Do I need any special permits to climb?

No, all necessary climbing permits and park fees are included in our package. Your guides will take care of the required paperwork, allowing you to focus on your ascent.

What are the physical requirements for this trek?

Trek participants should possess moderate to good fitness levels, as the climb involves long durations of walking and ascending to significant altitudes. Previous hiking experience is beneficial for a successful trek.

Is there a risk of altitude sickness on the climb?

Yes, altitude sickness is a potential concern as you reach higher altitudes. Our carefully structured itinerary ensures adequate acclimatization, and we provide guidance for effectively managing any related symptoms.

What should I pack for the climb?

Essential items for the trek include sturdy hiking boots, warm clothing layers, rain gear, and personal items like sunscreen and toiletries. You will receive a detailed packing list once your booking is confirmed.
